

Newsletter 18 – November 2018

The European Honors Council (EHC) presents you news, events and materials to foster exchange in honors and talent development in higher education. This time, we bring you a short newsletter to update you on two events requiring quick action if you want to join!

- Last chance to register for CoTalent mini-conference in Copenhagen, 15-16 November
- Submit now for 2019 HERU conference
- Journal of the EHC content now in DOAJ

CoTalent mini-conference in Copenhagen

Would you like to learn how to provide teachers with tools to stimulate their talented students? The EU-funded project Working in Europe to Connect Talent development in higher education (CoTalent) presents its first project results at the MeTalent YouTalent mini-conference at University College Copenhagen in Denmark on 15-16 November. Participants will be the first to see and use first versions of the products MeTalent Mirror and YouTalent Spotter and will exchange with people from around Europe interested in talent development in higher education. Participation is free. Only a few places are left and registration closes November 7. Please see www.cotalentwizard.eu for more details.

Submit now for 2019 HERU conference

In the United States of America, the fourth biennial conference for Honors Education at Research Universities (HERU) will take place May 21-22, 2019, in Salt Lake City, Utah. Focus of the conference is on Honors Education for 21st Century Challenges: Educating informed, engaged, and ethical leaders in local and global settings. The deadline for submitting an abstract is November 16. For more info, please see www.HERU2019Utah.org

In the coming week attention in the (American) honors community is on the annual NCHC conference, which is held in Boston with the theme 'Learning to transgress'.

More about this conference in the next issue of this newsletter.

Journal of the EHC content now in DOAJ

Do you want to learn about teaching strategies in honors, designing a professional development course for honors teachers or honors education in France? Articles on all these subjects have been published in the latest issue of the Journal of the European Honors Council. The journal content can now also be found through the Directory of Open Access Journals.

Of course we need your contributions to foster exchange of knowledge around the subject of talent development in higher education. You can read the Journal and submit contributions at www.jehc.eu

More info?

Please feel free to send this newsletter around to colleagues and friends, and invite them to also join the EHC. See www.honorscouncil.eu
